

Joint CSIR / CFTRI (Diamond Jubilee) – NAM S&T Centre Fellowship 2013-14

Announcement

The NAM S&T Centre [www.namstct.org] and CSIR-Central Food Technological Research Institute, Mysore, India [www.cftri.com], a constituent Laboratory of the Council of Scientific & Industrial Research, New Delhi, India had initiated a Fellowship scheme, titled 'Joint CSIR / CFTRI (Diamond Jubilee) – NAM S&T Centre Fellowship', in the year 2010-11. The Fellowship aims at providing opportunities to the researchers from the developing countries to affiliate themselves with CSIR-CFTRI, Mysore to undertake training, upgrade their research skills and conduct joint research in various fields of Food Science & Technology.

The NAM S&T Centre invites applications for the 'Joint CSIR / CFTRI (Diamond Jubilee) – NAM S&T Centre Fellowship' for the year 2013-14. Four (4) Fellowships are available in the year for a maximum duration of six months each and are awarded to only one scientist/researcher each from any given developing country on a strictly competitive basis based on the applicant's academic and professional background, the proposed plan of research work and mutual research interests of the applicant and CSIR-CFTRI. The Applicant should be employed with academic Universities or research Institutions or Governmental bodies with proven research & development programmes.

The Fellowship scheme provides attractive financial assistance, under which the CSIR-CFTRI would provide free single accommodation in Mysore, India and a subsistence allowance of US$300 (in equivalent Indian Rupees) per month to the selected scientists/researchers to cover incidentals and other day-to-day expenses (includes food & others) during the tenure of the Fellowship. Other financial terms including the support for international airfare by the NAM S&T Centre would be communicated to the applicants separately.

Applications are invited for the Joint CSIR / CFTRI (Diamond Jubilee) – NAM S&T Fellowship in prescribed format. The Guidelines and a Blank Application Form are attached. Completed applications duly recommended by the parent institutions of the applicants may be electronically submitted directly to the NAM S&T Centre (namstcentre@gmail.com).

The last date for submitting application for the Fellowship is 24th September 2013
